

L.E.A.D. Conference: October 17-20, 2011

Generation FREE's L.E.A.D. (Leadership, Engagement, and Activism Development) Conference 2011 will be held on October 17-20. This series of four one-day conferences is designed to help high school students throughout the state of Mississippi share innovative ideas and creative concepts to make sustainable changes in their schools and communities.

Registration is free, but space is limited! Be sure to complete the conference registration form and return it as soon as possible. For more information on the conference, call 601.420.2414.

Conference Keynote Speaker: Shaun Derik

Born the son of an esteemed musician, Shaun Derik always knew that he would impact the world through the arts. At an early age he leaped into the entertainment industry, landing several TV commercials, producing his own short films, and directing powerful plays at his local church. He saw the effects that his message and leadership had on the young people in his hometown and decided he had an enormous responsibility. Through his many projects, Shaun Derik continues to spread the message of hope and empowerment to young dreamers everywhere.
